Pornography defendant held in molestation

By Carroll Lachnit
The Register

A former participant in the Big Brother program, already charged in connection with a child-pornography ring, is scheduled to be arraigned today on charges of molesting an 11-year-old Laguna Hills boy with whom he had been paired.

David Robert Negrette, 26, was arrested Monday in Los Angeles when he appeared in court in the child-pornography case. Huntington Beach police had been looking for him without success, Lt. Ed McErlain said.

Negrette, of Westminster, faces four counts of lewd acts with a child and one count of crimes against children.

According to an investigative report filed in support of the arrest warrant, the alleged molestation came to light after Negrette's arrest in the child-porn case.

In that case, Negrette and three other men — one a former priest — allegedly ran a child-pornography operation that recruited Mexican boys to perform sex before video cameras in Ensenada, Mexico. Negrette allegedly appeared in the films. Three of the defendants, including Negrette, are scheduled for trial in Los Angeles on Oct. 20.

Several Orange County residents knew Negrette from his involvement with three Boy Scout troops — Nos. 247 and 1403 in Huntington Beach and No. 113 in Santa Ana. They called authorities, concerned that Negrette might have involved Scouts in the child-porn ring. Callers also told investigators that Negrette was involved in Big Brothers-Big Sisters.

Big Brothers told Huntington Beach police that Negrette had been dismissed in July 1986, after his "little brother" told his mother that Negrette had shown him sexually explicit pictures and made a "pass" at him, according to the report. The "little brother" added that Negrette had tied him down and exposed his genitals to the boy.

Big Brothers referred the matter to the county Child Abuse Registry, which contacted police in Huntington Beach, where Negrette then lived.

At the time, a Huntington Beach detective warned Negrette not to have further contact with the boy, but no formal report was taken and no investigation was done, according to the report filed with the warrant.

When another detective, Chuck Thomas, re-interviewed the boy in May, he said he had been molested by Negrette.

The boy, now 15, said he had not told anyone the full story because Negrette threatened to kill the boy's mother and grandmother.

The boy gave police this account:

At first, Negrette took him to R-rated movies, then he began showing him child pornography at his apartment during their weekend visits. He also showed him Polaroid pictures of naked children and encouraged him to call sexually explicit 976 recorded messages.

After several weeks, Negrette tied him down with belts and performed sexual acts on him. Another man sometimes participated, and some of the incidents were photographed or videotaped.

Once, another youth performed sexual acts on the boy while Negrette and the other man took pictures. The boy said Negrette identified the youth as a Boy Scout.

According to the investigative report, police believe they have located the youth, but the youth said he barely knew Negrette.

In the course of the investigation, Huntington Beach police also were told that in 1988 some boys in the Santa Ana Scout troop reported that Negrette had shown them "dirty movies." Negrette denied doing so.

Scouting officials decided that Negrette should resign his position as a Scout leader. But, according to the report, the Scouts' director of field services, Bob Booker, told other Scout leaders that the matter should not be referred to police.

Booker was on a camping trip Tuesday and could not be reached for comment.

Nevertheless, police did investigate the story and could not substantiate it at that time.

In a re-interview of boys in the troop this year, one said Negrette had shown him an X-rated film but asked him to keep it "their secret."

Two other boys in the troop told investigators that Negrette had asked them if they masturbated or had sex with girls. They told investigators his questions made them uncomfortable, but that Negrette had not tried to touch them.

Police asked that anyone with information about Negrette call Detective Chuck Thomas at 536-5957.

By JEFF MITCHELL,
Times Staff Writer

An Orange County man who Los Angeles authorities allege was involved in a child pornography ring is now being investigated by Huntington Beach police because he served as an assistant scoutmaster for a Boy Scout troop in that city.

David Negrette, 26, of Westminster was dismissed from the Scouts in 1989 for not meeting the "leadership standards" of the youth group, according to 16-year-old daughter.

In a spokesman for the Orange County Council for the Boy Scouts of America, Negrette was dismissed, but he did say that there was "no relation" between the dismissal and the child pornography charge that Negrette now faces. Daugherty also refused to disclose the number of the Huntington Beach troop.

Huntington Beach Detective Sgt. Bill Peterson said Wednesday that investigators were interviewing boys 8 to 14 years old from the northern part of Huntington Beach who may have come in contact with Negrette. He declined to be more specific.

"Right at the moment, I can tell you that we have not identified any victims from Huntington Beach," Peterson said. "We are having meetings and interviewing people to try to identify possible victims, but we are having some difficulty in finding them."

Negrette and Jerry Houchens, 49, of Santa Ana are being held in Los Angeles on $150,000 and $200,000 bail, respectively, on suspicion of soliciting young boys in Mexico to participate with them in the making of pornographic video tapes. Also charged was John Bauer, 52, of Los Angeles. Bauer, a former priest, is the group's ring-leader, detectives allege, and is still at large.

Fourth Man Sought

A fourth man, Victor Feltsman, 29, of Rosemead, is also being sought by authorities for his alleged involvement.

Bauer, Negrette and Houchens all were charged with conspiracy to distribute child pornography throughout the Southland and the United States. Houchens pleaded innocent Wednesday to the conspiracy charges in a Los Angeles court at his arraignment. A preliminary hearing for both Negrette and Houchens is scheduled April 21.

Authorities allege that the group lured the Mexican youths—all ages 8 to 14—into participating in the videos by paying them a few dollars. The tapes were allegedly filmed last year in motels in and around the city of Ensenada.

Detective Bill Dworkin of the Los Angeles Police Department's Sexually Exploited Child Unit said that investigators no longer believe that the three victimized only the Mexican youths, but that Huntington Beach detectives, along with Los Angeles authorities, would continue their investigation.

"As of yet we have no information to believe that either Negrette or Houchens were involved with any boys in Orange County," Dworkin said.

Neighbors Shocked

Neighbors of Negrette, who lived in a Westminster trailer park, greeted the news of the McDaniel Douglas Astronautics Co. employee's arrest with shock.

"He was always real nice—a quiet fellow, always well-dressed and never a problem," said Carl Dobos, a manager at the park in the 14000 block of Hoover Street.

"When he was arrested, we were amazed. He seemed to just come and go from work and that's it," Dobos observed.

Dobos said the only time that Negrette had a problem in the large park was when his video camera was stolen from his mobile home last November.

"At the time, we didn't think too much about it. But after he was arrested, they took several different pieces of gear out of his trailer. I mean, VCRs and stuff like that," Dobos added.

2 Seized, Ex-Priest Sought in Alleged Porn Ring

BY NIFESON HIMMEL and JOHN H. LEE, Times Staff Writers

LOS ANGELES—Two Orange County men have been arrested and a former Roman Catholic priest described by neighbors as a "perfect gentleman" is being sought in connection with a ring that allegedly made pornography videotapes of young boys in Mexico and Southern California and distributed them worldwide, police said Tuesday.

John Bauer, 52, said by officers to have preyed on juveniles in Hollywood in recent years and to have owned porno shops in the Pacific Northwest, was labeled the "Pornographic Priest" in a 1984 Chicago magazine article that described his disillusionment with the priesthood.

Bauer, the alleged ringleader, is believed to have fled the country after slipping through police hands several months ago. Also being sought in the case is Victor Feliciano, 29, a Rosemead handyman, who is thought to have fled the country.

The two arrests were identified as Jerry Houchens, 49, of Santa Ana, and David Negrette, 28, a former assistant Scoutmaster of Huntington Beach, said Detective Sgt. Ralph Bennett, of the Police Department's Exploited Child Unit.

Negrette was being held on $150,000 bail. He faces a preliminary hearing April 21. Houchens is in jail with bail set at $200,000. He is to be arraigned today.

All four suspects have been charged with conspiracy to distribute child pornography. Bennett said they are members of the North American Man-Boy Love Assn., an organization of pedophiles that circulates child pornography.

Bennett said the suspects apparently picked up boys ages 8 to 14 on the streets of Ensenada and took them to motel rooms there to

Please see RING, Page 6

RING: 2 Arrested, Ex-Priest Is Being Sought in Pornography Case

videotape them in sexual encounters with each other and with at least three of the four men. The boys were paid a few dollars apiece, the officer said.

Bennett said the case came to police attention last summer when a young boy told authorities at Children of the Night, a Hollywood shelter for runaways, that he had been picked up by Bauer and taken to the ex-priest's apartment nearby, where he saw photographs of nude boys.

Officers went to the apartment in the 1500 block of North Marvel

Avenue and removed a truckload of videotapes, videotaping equipment and other material. They also reported finding some marijuana plants.

Bauer was arrested Aug. 23 on suspicion of cultivating marijuana. He posted $10,000 bail and disappeared. It was not until after he had left—apparently for Europe—that officers were able to go through the seized material and realize that pornography charges could be filed, Bennett said.

A staff member at the Hollywood shelter said Tuesday night that police told her "this guy (Bauer) has been doing it [videotaping young boys] for a while."

"We had heard about him from more than one child," the woman, who asked not to be identified said.

Lucille Hotnog, the manager at the apartment building where Bauer lived, described him as "a rather attractive gray-haired gentleman with glasses." She said that he appeared to be a retiree and that he told her that he "accrued a lot of money—T-bills, trust funds. He often swam in the daytime, or lounged by the pool."

Bauer's apartment was remodeled before his arrest, Hotnog said,

"but when the construction workers went in, there were no pictures or unusual plants. I had no suspicion. I didn't see him with one child, only with adult friends."

Nathan Chew, a neighbor, remembered Bauer as "the guy who was always wearing Hawaiian shirts. The only people I saw him with were his age—older guys."

Dear Bob:

Thank you for the confidential record sheet and the two letters which you sent us concerning the above named individual. These are most helpful to us and certainly will enable us to identify Mr. Negrette should he attempt registration in some other location.

We hope you have deleted Mr. Nagrette from your Council Registration System. This needs to be done so that he is no longer listed in your council totals.

We would like something with Mr. Negrette 's signature, if you have this available. This aids in the identification process for the future.

We would like to know if there is going to be any legal action or if anyone is going to press charges. From what you have indicated apparently not, but we would like more information or statements from other individuals if more boys have been involved. We believe this would strengthen our file for the future and in any other councils where necessary.

Please let us know if we can be of further help to you.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

Dear scout administration,

My name is [REDACTED]. I am a member of the boy scouts and am 12 going to be 13 in about 3 weeks. Scoutmaster David Negrette tried to molest me at his home in Westminster. Well I shouldn't use the term... molest but touch and see my private parts. It all started on Sunday, May 1, 1988 when he asked if I would help him with the scout newsletter. We first made it on a computer, printed it, copied, stapled and folded it. It was actually then because we made about 30 copies. Then he passed me off as Family Living skill award. After that he was asking if I remembered when I told him that my friend [REDACTED] was acting funny and I said yes I did. Then we were talking about his behavior. Then he asked like has my friend ever been attracted to me sexually or if he liked boys and I said no. After that, he whether he addressed in front of me in a sexual manner and I replied shocked no. Then after we kept talking about give me a lot of pleasure, but I wouldn't listen. Then after [REDACTED] about sex which I don't really remember, he asked if he could have a peek at my penis or if I wouldn't mind to let him see my penis, and I said yes I would mind. So then he said to get ready to leave and then we left. On the way he said if [REDACTED] (the person in charge of the newsletters and my friend) wouldn't come to get the newsletters, he would call me again to prepare the newsletters. So then we arrived at my house and he dropped me off.

So there you have
it. Everything that occurred on Sunday, May 1, 1988. I apologize for the language I used but I wanted to tell the details.
Thank you for the cooperation
your understanding.
